How Did Scott Perform On This ELA Assessment?
This section gives detail on your student's overall score on the assessment. The score determines which performance level your student is in.

Students who score in Level 2 Partially Met Expectations for 5th grade learning standards

How Does Scott's Performance Compare to Past Performance?
The last ELA test that Scott took was the Grade 4 DC CAS. This report does not make a direct comparison between the PARCC and DC CAS because they are very different tests. First, the scoring and performance levels are different. Second, the PARCC is considered more challenging because of the real-world questions that measure the knowledge and skills students need to succeed in their grade, and ultimately in college and careers.

On his year's PARCC, Scott scored better than 42% of DC 5th graders.

On the Grade 4 DC CAS, Scott scored better than 37% of DC 4th graders.

How Does Scott's Score Compare to Other 5th Grade Students?
Compared to other 5th grade students tested on this year's PARCC, Scott scored better than this percentage of students:

- Scott's School: 35%
- DCPS: 40%
- DC: 42%

How Does Scott Compare to Students at the Same School?
Below is the percent of 5th grade students in each PARCC ELA Performance level in Anywhere ES.

Scott's Performance Level

- Level 5: 10%
- Level 4: 15%
- Level 3: 35%
- Level 2: 35%
- Level 1: 15%

What is next?
What Can You Ask Scott's Teacher?

- What are Scott's learning goals in language arts and literacy this year?
- How is Scott performing in language arts and literacy class?
- What extra support in school and/or at home does Scott need to meet these goals?
